Fair Ways Vision, Mission and Values

Our vision

To build an institution that makes a difference to society and leaves a legacy greater than ourselves and our contributions.

Our mission

Making a difference through passionate care, support and education.

Our values

As a charity we measure our wealth by the difference we make, rather than any profit.

We believe that by embodying a culture in which every individual is valued for their own contribution, we can develop them and harness their potential, so that they may achieve great things.

Our values form the heart of the work we do, defined by Fair Ways people, for Fair Ways people. These are the values by which we operate, by which we are governed, and to which we are held accountable.

We therefore expect every individual within the organisation to play their part:

1 Introduction

- 1.1 Fair Ways Education is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all its young people. As an education provider we recognise that safeguarding against radicalisation is no different from safeguarding against any other vulnerability. All staff are expected to uphold and promote the fundamental principles of British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.
- 1.2 The Fair Ways Anti-Radicalisation Policy statement links to the following policies:
- Safeguarding policy (DOC REF SC10)
 - Child Protection policy (DOC REF SC25)
 - Anti-Bullying policy (DOC REF SC05)
 - Behaviour Management policy (DOC REF SC08)
 - SMSC policy (DOC REF SC02)
- 1.3 The Anti-Radicalisation Policy statement will be reviewed annually as part of the overall Child Protection and Safeguarding Policies' review.

2 Aims and Principles

- 2.1 The main aims of the policy statement are to ensure that staff are fully engaged in being vigilant about radicalisation; that they overcome professional disbelief that such issues will not happen here and ensure that we work alongside other professional bodies and agencies to ensure our young people are safe from harm.
- 2.2 The principle objectives are that:
- All Directors, Head of School, Deputies, Teachers, Therapeutic Learning Practitioners, Learning Support Workers and Non-teaching staff will have an understanding of what radicalisation and extremism are and why we need to be vigilant in school.
 - All Directors, Head of School, Deputies, Teachers, Therapeutic Learning Practitioners, Learning Support Workers and Non-teaching staff will know what the school policy is on anti-radicalisation and extremism and will follow the policy when issues arise.
 - All parents / carers and young people will know that the school has policies in place to keep young people safe from harm and that the school regularly reviews its systems to ensure they are appropriate and effective.

3 Definitions and Indicators

- 3.1 Radicalisation is defined as the act or process of making a person more radical or favouring of extreme fundamental changes in political, economic or social conditions, institutes or habits of the mind.
- 3.2 All young people are vulnerable to extremist ideology and radicalisation. There is no single way of identifying whether a young person is likely to be susceptible to an extremist ideology. Background factors combined with specific influences such as family and friends may contribute to a child's vulnerability. Similarly, radicalisation can occur through many different methods (such as social media) and settings (such as the internet). However, it is possible to protect vulnerable people from extremist ideology and intervene to prevent those at risk of radicalisation being radicalised. As with other safeguarding risks, staff should be alert to changes in children's behaviour, which could indicate that they may be in need of help or protection. Staff should use their judgement in identifying children who might be at risk of radicalisation and act proportionately which may include the designated safeguarding lead (or deputy) making a referral to the Channel programme.
- 3.3 Extremism is defined as the holding of extreme political or religious views.

The signs of possible radicalisation include:

- notable changes in behaviour / mood
- beginning to express extreme political or radical views
- appearing increasingly sympathetic to terrorist views
- change of appearance
- friends may change and may spend excessive time on their own or on the Internet

4 Procedures for Referrals

- 4.1 Although serious incidents involving radicalisation have not occurred at Fair Ways Education to date, it is important for us to be constantly vigilant and remain fully informed about the issues which affect the region in which we teach and guidance from Hampshire's Local Children's Safeguarding Partnership (LSCP). Staff are reminded to suspend any professional disbelief that the instances of radicalisation 'could not happen here' and to refer concerns through the appropriate channels. In the first instance any concerns should be reported to the school's Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL).
- 4.2 Cases can also be referred to the Channel programme by the schools DSL where there is a radicalization concern. Channel is a voluntary, confidential support programme which focuses on providing support at an early stage to people who are identified as being vulnerable to being drawn into terrorism.

4.2 All concerns can be discussed with the local Safeguarding Teams:

- Hampshire Children Safeguarding Team: 0300 555 1384
- Southampton Children Safeguarding Team: 02380 833 336
- Portsmouth Children Safeguarding Team: 0845 671 0271
- Isle of Wight Children Safeguarding Team: 01983 814 545
- Anti-Terrorist Hotline: 0800 789 321
- Crime Stoppers: 0800 555 111
- Police 101 or in an emergency 999

5 The Role of the Curriculum

5.1 Our curriculum promotes respect, tolerance and diversity. Young People are encouraged to share their views and recognise that they are entitled to have their own different beliefs which should not be used to influence others.

5.2 Our PSHE (Personal, Social, Health Education) and SMSC (Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural) provision is embedded across the curriculum and underpins the ethos of the school.

5.3 It is recognised that young people with low aspirations are more vulnerable to radicalisation and therefore we strive to equip our young people with confidence, self-belief, respect and tolerance as well as setting high standards to achieve for themselves.

5.4 Young people are regularly taught about how to stay safe when using the Internet and are encouraged to understand that people are not always who they say they are on-line. Young peoples are taught to seek adult help if they are upset or concerned about anything they see on the internet.

6 Staff Training

6.1 Fair Ways Education participates in the Prevent strategy training programme. This is the national strategy which aims to stop people from becoming violent extremists or supporting terrorism. Through INSET days in school we ensure that our staff are fully aware of the threats, risks and vulnerabilities that are linked to radicalisation, are aware of the process of radicalisation and how this might be identified early.

6.2 All staff who work with young people complete PREVENT as soon as is reasonable possible after they start.

Evaluation to take place on an annual basis.
